

Mexican artist, based in Mexico City. Her multidisciplinary work is composed of sculptural work, painting and drawing complementing her academic training as an industrial designer.

She grew up accompanied by her father and her brother, with the need to get in touch with the feminine energy, Eternal Feminine was born, a tribute to all those women that she has had the fortune of knowing and admiring.

"Women conceived simply and purely by their existence, both rational and passionate, regardless of dogmas or theories"

